DISEASE NOW IN THE HILL SECTION

Two New Cases of Diphtheria Develop at Crest Avenue Home

EPIDEMIC IS FEARED

Two new cases of diphtheria have developed on Crest avenue. The 7-year old daughter and three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ornat, of 903 Crest avenue, are afflicted with the disease. Their condition so far is not considered serious.

A 17 year old son of Andrew Letoski was not expected to live Friday night and the condition of the 13-year old daughter was considered serious. The entire Letoski family is sick. There are three cases of diphtheria in the family.

There was a light case of diphtheria in the Ornat house a month or six weeks ago. It was so light however that the doctor was not sure for a time that it was diphtheria.

It is feared by the board of health and some of the doctors in the town that there will be an epidemic of diphtheria in the hill section. When funeral services were held for Michael Letoski, the first one to die from the disease, an open funeral service was held with the casket open. Health Officer Darby arrived about the time that the funeral was over and made the people leave the house. Four of the men were arrested. Three of them were fined and the fourth was released with a reprimand.

HEALTH BOARD HOLDS MEETING

Warm Discussion Takes Place Over Health Conditions in Charleroi

DISEASE IS THE CAUSE

The Charleroi Health board held a stormy meeting Friday night in the office of the secretary Dr. A. O. Davis. The fact that an open funeral was held at the Andrew Letoski home on Crest avenue the first of the week after a son had died of diphtheria, and also the fact that several of the doctors of the town had not been reporting contagious diseases promptly called for much general discussion.

Dr. A. O. Davis, secretary of the board was instructed to notify some of the physicians that they would have to be more prompt in reporting contagious diseases to the board of health. Dr. Davis was also instructed to notify the undertaker that open funerals must not be held in cases where persons have died of contagious disease.

Health Officer W. M. Darby reported that he had compelled a huckster to throw away a wagon load of decomposed fruit. Mr. Darby reported for the month of October as follows: Disinfections made, 5; contagious diseases—mumps 5, chicken pox, diphtheria 6, scarlet fever 1; general complaints 8, persons fined 3, wells closed 1, stables reported 2, unsanitary houses and premises 2, chicken reported 1, closets and sewers reported 3. Health Officer Darby had five persons before Burgess Woodward during the month.

CLAYSVILLE MAN PROVES ABILITY BY MAKING RAID

Bert Laird, for years a well known officer of Clayville who has but recently received his commission as a private detective, celebrated his new office by leading in a decidedly successful raid on alleged speakeasies and disorderly houses at Langeloth and about the Erie mine near Burgettstown. As a result of the raid 13 persons, seven men and six women, were Wednesday evening lodged in the county jail, held for court on various charges.

Laird and other officers have been at work for some time past getting evidence about Langeloth and near the mine. Tuesday night Laird accompanied by Constable E. B. Hayes, Ed Gordon and Harry Conn swooped down on the suspected places. Those who were captured included the following: William Dougan, Tony Bathies, Eli Weidish, Leslie Loggerr, John Johnston, Al Robinson, Sophie Lasco, Mrs. Al Robinson, Mrs. Adam Wonsetter, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Dragon Miller, Carl Martin and Mrs. Carl Martin. All but the Martins are charged with violating the liquor laws. The Martins are alleged to have conducted a disorderly house. The Johnstons and Robinsons are from the Erie mine while the rest of the prisoners hail from Langeloth.

Following the raid all the prisoners had preliminary hearings before Justice H. B. McMurry and being unable to furnish $500 bail each were sent to jail for the next term of court.

DAIRYMAN IS RUN OVER AND KILLED

Mike Costelli, of Rehoboth Meets Death in Unusual Manner Friday

RUNAWAY IS BEGINNING

Mike Costelli, aged 44 years a dairyman living near Rehoboth church was killed when his team became frightened and ran away with a load of lumber Friday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock on the road between Monessen and Belle Vernon.

Costelli had been to Monessen and got a load of lumber, which he was taking home. When about a mile out of Monessen his team took fright at something and ran away. One story is that he was thrown from his wagon and the wagon passed over his body. Another story is that the wagon struck a retaining wall and the load of lumber upset on him, breaking his neck and several ribs.

The body was found by a colored family living near the scene of the accident. He was dead when found. The body was taken to Monessen. Costelli's wife was shopping in Monessen at the time of the accident. He leaves his wife and four children.

SEEKS PARTNER FOR LIFE WHO KNOWS COUNTRY

A girl, particularly a farmer's daughter between 20 and 28 years of age, weighing not less than 110 pounds and not more than 150 pounds and with dark hair has an opportunity awaiting her according to a letter which has been received by some of the postmasters in this section of the state. The letter is from Ernest Swain, who as he says is seeking "a partner to take charge of the domestic science department of the Buckeye Ranch at Nipinawase, California, which ranch he owns and which for some reason has become lonely to him."

Swain states in his letter that he is a bachelor 29 years of age. His mother died two months ago. He says that he has a good claim and is able to keep a wife. Swain admires the eastern girls more than he does the western girls. His native state was Ohio. He wants a country girl because she knows what the country is like. He has 100 trees on his place that are over a hundred years old. The Mariposa big tree grove is just 1 mile from the ranch and the Yosemite valley is only 45 miles away. Swain says that he has a little saddle mare that he would give to his wife. She will shake hands like a dog. He wants to take his bride to the Yosemite valley for a wedding trip. He says that he does not want his wife to do any outside work but to take care of the chickens and to have tea roses for her hobby. He gives references and states that he does not drink alcohol or smoke tobacco.

Offering for Belgians Taken.
The amount of the offering taken at the First Christian church on October 25 for the Belgium relief fund, according to a report of Rev. E. N. Duty, the pastor was $14.84.

Reception at School

Hallowe'en Events Take Place in Gym--Password is "Celebration"

Pupils of the Charleroi high school enjoyed a masquerade reception at the high school gymnasium Friday evening. The affair was arranged by the faculty and a committee from each class. In order to have only school pupils present a pass word was given out Friday by the committee. As the gay masqueraders approached the scene of festivities a certain serious mysteriousness prevailed the atmosphere while they cautiously looked around and quickly whispered to Gibson Hill or Everett Kibler the single word "Celebrate". The accomplishment admitted them to the gymnasium which was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and corn stalks. Near the close of the evening of fun members of the faculty assisted by a committee of pupils served the hungry party with the season's delicacies.

GOV. AND MRS. TENER RECEIVE

Silver Wedding Anniversary is Occasion for Pleasant Entertainment

Gov. and Mrs. John K. Tener celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at the executive mansion Friday night, prominent state officials, personal friends of the governor and Mrs. Tener, relatives and members of the governor's staff comprising the company which gathered in the historic home of Pennsylvania's governors. The reception was the last big affair which the Teners will give. Mrs. Tener's "at home" on New Year's Day, one of the events of the year in Harrisburg, being the only function that will take place before the governor retires.

Members of the Tener family from Western Pennsylvania and Ohio came to extend many good wishes and there were present such prominent men as President Henry S. Drinker, Lehigh University; President E. E. Sparks, State College; President W. A. Gransville, Gettysburg College; E. T. Stotesbury, of Philadelphia; Judge R. W. Irwin, Washington and others with their wives.

The decorations of the mansion were white chrysanthemums with many superb flowers sent to the bride of 25 years ago. These were in numerous silver vases. In the dining room there was a victorian decoration of white grapes with their own foliage caught with silver ribbon. Mrs. Tener wore a diamond pendant, presented by four of her old friends.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Day of Charleroi.

PROGRESSIVES HOLD A RALLY

Congressman Temp'e and Judge Brum Speakers at Charleroi Meeting

IS THE FINAL MEETING

The concluding rally locally of the present campaign was held by the Washington party Friday night at Turner Hall, when Congressman Henry W. Temple of Washington and Judge Charles N. Brumm of Schuylkill county were speakers. Dr. H. J. Repman chairman of the local Washington party organization, served as chairman. A fair-sized crowd gathered, including several Democrats.

INDIVIDUAL VOTERS MUST PAY TAXES

It has been reported that a large number of poll tax receipts have been paid for in Washington county and other districts of Washington county by persons who claim to have authority to do so, in some instances presenting a signed order. It does not seem generally known that these tax receipts are not good unless the money for each one of them has been paid by the person ordering it before the receipt is issued.

Section 1 article 3 of the constitution of Pennsylvania provides as follows:

"Every male citizen of twenty-two years of age, and upwards shall have paid within two years a state or county tax which shall have been assessed at least one month before the election."

In the case of Flick vs. Woodruff et al., 21 district reports page 137, Judge Sulzberger held:

"The payment of a poll tax by any other person than the taxpayer himself is illegal. While under the act of July 15, 1897, P. L. 276 a man may in writing deputize another to pay the tax for him, yet if he would avoid the penalties of the act of March 3, 1907, P. L. 78, he must furnish the money to the deputy, who may neither give or lend it."

Judge Sulzberger says: "The contention that the tax receipt is final and conclusive is not easy to maintain."

He further says: "It is true that by virtue of the statute the paper has become prima facie evidence that the holder paid for it with his own money. When, however, this prima facie effect of the paper is challenged, that challenge must be investigated in order that the constitutional fact may be ascertained. There is no power in the legislature to enact any law, whether it is called a law of evidence or by any other name, which directly or indirectly repeals or nullifies a constitutional provision."

In one precinct of greater Washington one of the Republican workers paid for 23 tax receipts. It appears from the above decision that unless each one of these 23 persons had handed this party worker the money the receipts are illegal and cannot be used.

THE BOND ISSUE

Next Tuesday Charleroi electors will be called upon to decide whether or not the town shall be bonded to the extent of $75,000 for municipal improvements. The proposal to expend that sum of money should necessitate careful thought on the part of voters before they cast their ballot.

The amount of taxable property in Charleroi borough at the last assessed valuation was $3,432,410. The total debt now existing is $146,600.

Charleroi can issue $75,000 in bonds and still not approach its limit as set by law.

It is admittedly unwise for a municipality to bond itself to the limit, but Charleroi is not proposing to do that. The percentage of the proposed increase in the indebtedness, computed upon the last assessed valuation is 2.18505 per cent.

The purpose of the proposed issue must be understood. Of the $75,000 the greater part or $65,000 is to be used for grading, curbing and paving hill streets; $10,000 is to be used for the purchase of a site and for the erection of a municipal building.

Estimates carefully computed indicate that the sum of $75,000 could be provided in one issue of bonds without recourse to the expediency of taxation increase. This however, would necessitate that the ensuing payments be spread out over a basis of 30 years or more. Proper administration of finances by a careful council would be necessary, in the general order of things, to avoid an advance in the millage. This is a fundamental principal that applies generally and broadly, and enters into the consideration of any bond issue proposal.

Information is that without a bond issue the borough will face the prospect of expensive borrowing, or the creation of a fund through increased taxation, and heaven knows taxes are high enough now.

There is little doubt as to the advisability of street grading, curbing and paving on the hill. These are municipal improvements that are necessary if Charleroi is to continue to advance and if it is to hold its prestige as an up-to-date municipality. With paved streets in the hill districts a saving would be realized. Paved streets are less costly to keep clean and in condition than dirt streets.

On the municipal building project there is only an explanation to be made. The originators of the idea maintain that the borough lockup building is unsanitary and unsuited for use and that the borough building proper, which is used for firemen's quarters and council chambers is likewise unsuitable. The proposal is to acquire a site on a good location and to erect a building that will answer for all purposes for which the two structures are now required. To begin with a desirable location could not be obtained, judging from present valuations, for less than $5,000. But it is proposed to sell the two buildings now owned and to use money thus acquired together with that available from the bond issue.

There should be a large vote on the bond issue question. On the question of actual expenditure of money the right of suffrage may be and should be exercised to the fullest extent. A proposal of this nature is one of the things which affects us vitally; in fact it has a more direct bearing on our immediate as well as continued welfare than the election of some of the higher officials of the state. It is not a little thing; it is a big thing. Let every one who goes to the polls on Tuesday decide for himself the merits or lack of the same of this $75,000 proposed issue.

NO ALUM IN ROYAL BAKING POWDER

WAR NOTES

London, Oct. 31.—A dispatch from Rome says that a battle between the Turkish and Russian fleets is in progress off Odessa. It was Russian naval aggression that brought Turkey into the war. Russian torpedo boats guarding the exit from Bosphorus into the Black Sea attempted to prevent the Turkish fleet from leaving the Bosphorus and entering the Black sea. A naval engagement followed in which two Russian war vessels were sunk. More than 30 Russian sailors were rescued from the sea when the Russian vessels sank. These were made prisoners. The Turkish fleet was not damaged.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The British troops hard pressed by the Germans against their positions along both sides of the canal of LaBasse, were victors Friday night in one of the hardest fought battles of the campaign in France. Thousands of dead and dying were left on the field when the Germans withdrew. The trenches held both British and German dead. In Belgium a lull seems to have settled over both armies. The Germans had entrenched themselves in a low wooded positions on the west bank of the Yser, and the Belgians opened the dikes and inundated the field. The Germans were cut down until scores of bodies were tumbled into the canal while they were attempting to escape from their position. New fighting has occurred in the vicinity of Rheims.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—The German attacks to the south of Nieuport and to the east of Yper are being successfully continued. Eight machine guns and 200 British soldiers have been captured. In the Argonne forest troops have occupied several block-houses and points of support. To the northwest of Verdun the French attacked without success.

Tokio, Oct. 31.—Is it officially announced that a general attack was opened at dawn today on the German position at Tsing Tau.

"ARE YOU AN AMERICAN CITIZEN?"

Do you stand for freedom of speech, the sacredness of the ballot, the honor of the judiciary and the safety of property and person?

Then Smite The Liquor Traffic By Smiting Its Friends And Stool Pigeons

It prates of Personal Liberty, which is liberty to sell poison to your boy. What do they do for Civil Liberty for which our fathers fought and died?

This from an advocate of Personal Liberty from an eye witness:

"Do you ever buy Ward's bread?" said a very rich and very angry brewer just before the election four years ago.

"Sometimes," said his housekeeper.

"Well, you never bring another loaf in this house," said the brewer, advocate of Personal Liberty.

"Why?" said his housekeeper.

"Why, he was at the Berry meeting last evening."

Do you know that two young teachers in Washington county lost their positions this fall because they protested against the indecency and violations of a saloon near their school of several hundred pupils?

Do you know that two young lawyers of our county who were opposing a license were offered $10,000 apiece if they would withdraw their objections?

Do you know that a high official was offered $4,000 if he would sign a petition for a license?

Do you know that the complicity of some Pennsylvania judges with the liquor traffic has come to be a by-word.

Do you know that only recently in a nearby county a judge sat on the bench and heard a witness swear that he had paid him (the judge) $12,000 for a license, and that the same judge and his colleague are known to have paid thousands of dollars for their election?

Do you know that in a neighboring county hundreds of "phantom" registrations put there by the liquor gang are now being found?

Do you know that the liquor gang is thoroughly organized and that they are determined to elect their candidates by fair or foul means?

Are you going to vote with them? If not vote for the Anti-Saloon ticket.

JUDGE TREXLER IS CANDIDATE

LEHIGH COUNTY MAN RECEIVING ENCOURAGEMENT FROM ALL PARTIES

In addition to a state senator and governor, voters of Pennsylvania this fall are called upon to elect a judge of the Superior Court. This court stands between the County and the Supreme Courts of Pennsylvania; and was created in order to bear some of the enormous burden that was falling on the shoulders of the members of the Supreme Court.

Judge Frank M. Trexler of Lehigh County, appointed to fill the unexpired term of Gen. James A. Beaver, is a candidate for election to the bench; and sentiment seems to be preponderantly in his favor. Judge Trexler was one of four candidates in the spring primary, and although his name was fourth on the ballot, owing to the alphabetical arrangement of names of candidates on the non-partisan ballot, he ran so far ahead of his competitors that for a time it appeared as though the election would not go past the primary. Judge Trexler seemingly having more than enough votes to elect him.

He carried 47 of the 67 counties of the state.

The Lehigh County jurist seems to be particularly fitted for this place, inasmuch as during the 11 years he was on the Lehigh County bench he was upheld by the higher courts in 90 per cent of his decisions.

What is the Non-partisan Ballot? Voters by this time are getting accustomed to the non-partisan ballot, used in Pennsylvania in electing judges and the government of third class cities. On this ballot no party is given, the candidates being arranged alphabetically on the ballot.

In the primary election the voter is given the party ballot he calls for and a non-partisan ballot. He must vote both to register his choice. In the fall election the non-partisan ballot is printed on the regular ballot. The voter must mark his choice in the non-partisan column as well as the rest of the ballot. Voting a straight party ticket does not vote for a judgeship candidate. For instance, to vote for Frank M. Trexler of Lehigh County for the Superior Court judgeship this fall it is necessary to place an "X" in the square after his name.

The Courts of Pennsylvania

The Supreme Court is the highest in Pennsylvania. Next to it—and in some matters of equal importance—comes the Superior Court.

The office of Judge of the Superior Court is a lofty and dignified one, but voters must be careful not to confound it with the Supreme Court.

The difference between the Supreme and Superior Courts, briefly, is this: The Superior Court receives all criminal business (with one exception); public road cases, and all matters involving a sum of money less than $1500.

The Superior Court is the same court for which Judge John W. Kephart of Cambria County made his famous run last fall.

The Supreme Court has jurisdiction in all cases where the amount involved is over $1500; and in cases of murder in the first degree.

Judge Frank M. Trexler of Lehigh County, one of the two candidates for the Superior Court, was judge of the Lehigh County Courts for 11 years; and was appointed to the Superior Court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gen. James A. Beaver.

BENTLEYVILLE

Hallowe'en in Bentleyville.
Bentleyville observed Hallowe'en in her smooth natural manner Friday evening. The only depredations committed were effected by the young men of the town. Boardwalks on South Main street were badly wrecked. In several places the walks were even torn up and thrown in the highway to obstruct the passage of vehicles. Barrels and debris blocked the usually tidy Main street. A couple of good dances were held during the evening, one at Costa's hall and the other in the Eagle's hall. The only trouble with the town was the absence of so many of its citizens. These sought the urban excitement of other towns, some Monongahela, others Charleroi, and still others Pittsburgh.

Entertains Teacher.

Thursday evening the boys class of the Bentleyville M. E. church entertained their teacher, Hiram L. Hetherington in a pleasing way. They gave an oyster supper at the home of Charles Richardson in their teacher's and his wife's honor. During the evening games were played and many interesting topics discussed. The affair was a private one being only for the class and its teachers.

mill, was a social caller in town Friday.

also had a dull, heavy pain in the small of my back and I couldn't do my housework. I seemed to be worse pains dated throughout my body and I felt tired all the time. I doctored but got no relief and when I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pharmacy. Two boxes relieved me.
